Are you an outstanding Nursery Nurse, looking to join a highly committed and enthusiastic team in our exciting, creative and supportive school?

We are looking to appoint an energetic, enthusiastic and creative Nursery Nurse who is enthusiastic about child development and learning and is an innovative practitioner with a passion for developing the whole child.

Rokesly Infant and Nursery school is a very successful, friendly and vibrant three form entry Infant School with a purpose built nursery building with its own outdoor space for the equivalent of 52 full time nursery children. At Rokesly we ensure children reach their potential in a welcoming and supportive environment where every child feels valued, respected and prepared to face the challenges of the 21st Century.

We work hard to enhance links between home, school and the wider community. At Rokesly, all our staff are committed to fostering a calm, caring and respectful atmosphere where every child matters.

If successful, you will join a creative and reflective staff team, work with happy, respectful and well-rounded pupils and receive ongoing professional development to further develop your skills and your career.
